

Alex M. Lierz

alierz@remboltlawfirm.com

Alex M. Lierz joined Rembolt Ludtke after completing a judicial clerkship with the Honorable William B. Cassel of the Nebraska Supreme Court. Alex's experience includes advocating for clients in military and farm divorces, custody and child support matters, and petitioning for adoptions, guardianships, and conservatorships. Alex is involved in the Nebraska State Bar Association as Chair of the Young Lawyers Section Executive Committee and a member of the Executive Council, the Education Committee, and the Family Law & Women and the Law Sections. Alex is also member of the Robert Van Pelt Inns of Court, Nebraska Association of Trial Attorneys, and the Lincoln Bar Association Law Day Committee. A Lincoln native, Alex enjoys reading, walking her dogs, and gardening with her husband and son.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Domestic Relations

ADMISSIONS

- Nebraska Supreme Court
- U.S. District Court (D. Neb.)

MEDIA

- Co-author: Nonmarital Property, 5.5.4, Family Law Practice Manual (Nebraska State Bar Association, 2019).
- Co-author: Trials, 5.10, Family Law Practice Manual (Nebraska State Bar Association, 2019).

EDUCATION

- University of Nebraska College of Law, J.D., with distinction, 2016
 - Order of the Barristers
 - Moot Court
- University of Nebraska – Lincoln, B.A., with distinction, 2013
 - University Honors Program

PROFESSIONAL/COMMUNITY

- Lincoln Bar Association: Law Day Committee, 2019 – present
- Nebraska State Bar Association: Young Lawyers Section Executive Committee, 2018 – present; Education Committee, 2017 – present; Family Law Section; Women and the Law Section
- American Bar Association: Section of Litigation Young Advocates Committee, 2018 – present; Family Law Section; Young Lawyers Division
- Robert Van Pelt Inns of Court, 2016 – present
- Law Clerk to the Honorable Justice William B. Cassel, Nebraska Supreme Court, 2016 – 2018