

Paige Gade

pgade@remboltlawfirm.com

Paige is a member of Rembolt Ludtke's business services and estate planning practice groups. Prior to joining the legal profession, Paige was a financial analyst for an international, privately held manufacturing firm and understands the fundamental drivers of her clients' businesses. She uses this background to provide legal solutions uniquely tailored to her client's individual business needs. Paige was born and raised in Lincoln, and after living in Wichita, Kansas and Omaha, Nebraska, she is excited to be a part of the Lincoln community again. Paige has experience in various aspects of corporate law, including mergers and acquisitions, commercial lending and real estate financing transactions, corporate governance, and health care law.
